

PRESS RELEASE

WE HAVE REACHED THE END OF THE JOURNEY!

SUSTAINABLE CIRCULAR ECONOMY OF PLASTICS:
WE ALL WIN.

The CIRC VET Project has come to an end, and it is time to take stock of the results obtained during this long and fruitful journey. The collaboration of the different partners (the coordinator AIJU, the University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, CENTIFME, Polymeris, IDL, LINPRA, VPM, APRC, Kunststoff-Institut Lüdenscheld, Proplast, HIT and the University of Trento) led to the large exceeding of the project's Key Performance Indicators (KPIs).

In particular, the following have been carried out:

- 1 complete and free training course, adapted to
- 3 different levels of teaching (training for university students (I-VET-HE), for students of vocational centres (I-VET-VET) and for company workers (C-VET)), divided into
- 8 thematic modules, related to the circular economy in the many sectors in which plastics are used (General concepts of EC, Eco-design and LCA, Digital skills, Manufacturing processes, Recycling, Recovery, Users and usages, Entrepreneurship), prepared in
- 7 different European languages (Spanish, Portuguese, French, German, Lithuanian and Italian), as well as English

To disseminate what has been achieved during these 36 months of the project, numerous communication and dissemination activities have been carried out, such as:

the establishment of 1 project website (circvet.eu), which has obtained more than 7000 views to date the establishment of 1 e-learning platform (project-spaces.eu), completely free of charge, to access the prepared content, which has obtained more than 4000 visits

the creation of 1 project LinkedIn page, with almost 500 followers, which actively disseminated the project activities and results, publishing more than 110 posts

the publication of 9 articles by all project partners, in technical journals and local newspapers to disseminate the project initiatives

the creation of 3 promotional and informative videos, which will be made fully available on the Youtube channel

Throughout the project, more than 10 piloting and validation events were organized, in which a total of all the European countries involved participated:

almost 300 students of different levels

more than 100 companies

The project ends at the end of August 2025, but the collaboration among the partners will continue to allow the e-learning platform to remain active and updated and to leave the possibility of using the content to anyone who wishes.

So, keep yourself informed!
